

VERIFICATION OF COMPLETION OF MINOR IN URBAN AND REGIONAL STUDIES FOR NON URBAN AND REGIONAL STUDIES MAJORS ONLY

College of Architecture, Art and Planning
Cornell University

INSTRUCTIONS:

The Urban and Regional Studies Minor has been formulated specifically for those students not enrolled in the Program of Urban and Regional Studies and who are interested in complementing their current academic program with an introduction to various facets of urban studies (domestic, environmental, international, professional, urban affairs).

Students meeting the requirements for this minor should complete this form which, when validated by City and Regional Planning Department, serves as evidence of completion of the minor requirements. Students should consult their individual college registrars for information about whether their home college recognizes and notes such minors on transcripts. The curriculum for students in the Minor in URS Program for Non-Majors totals a minimum of at least 6 courses (minimum total of 18 credit hours) in the Department of City and Regional Planning (CRP). Grades must be C or better in all courses used for minor credit.

Questions regarding the minor can be addressed in the City and Regional Planning Department Office located in 106 Sibley Hall.

The distribution requirements for the Minor are as follows:

Three required core courses (9 credits minimum):

CRP 1100: The American Cities	3 credits
CRP 1101: The Global City	3 credits
CRP 2000: The Promise & Pitfalls of Contemporary Planning	3 credits

Nine credits of elective department courses at the 3000 level or higher. (Please consult the department course listings)

Student meets with home college faculty advisor. Upon completion of course requirements, student completes a URS Minor Application form, available at: <http://aap.cornell.edu/sites/default/files/urs-minor-application-04.12.2016.pdf>. The URS program director (URS Minor Advisor) also verifies completion of the Minor and signs the form. The CRP Department verifies course completion and grades for Minor requirements, signs the application form and sends notification to the student's home college. Home college will post on the student's transcript.
