

CRP 8300 Seminar in Regional Science, Planning, and Policy Analysis
“The Research Seminar”

Fall 2017
1 Credit Hour

Thursdays, 4:30 – 6:00 PM, Room 115 W. Sibley Hall

Coordinator: Jeffrey M. Chusid, 106 W. Sibley Hall, jmc286@cornell.edu
GTRS: Allison Tse, aet84@cornell.edu

Speakers in the CRP research seminar series present their current scholarly investigations and invite discussion about content, methodology, and approach. Students taking the course for credit must attend at least eight presentations in the series. Note: failure to sign in with the GTRS will constitute an absence.

August 24	Jared Enriquez: Sustainable Water Management in the Tourism Economy: Linking Santorini’s Ancient Rainwater Cisterns to Modern Demands
August 31	Erica Shoenberger: State, City, Market
September 7	H. Oliver Gao: Urban Infrastructure, air pollution, and public health—Systems challenges and solutions
September 14	Scarlett Yiou Zuo: Data Science Application with MongoDB and Amazon Web Services
September 21	Nicholas Klein: Disentangling the Role of Cars and Transit in Employment and Earnings
September 28	David Bieri: Monetary Amnesia: How Regional Science Abandoned Monetary Thought
October 5	Nidhi Subramanyam: Remembering John Friedman: a discussion of readings
October 12	(No class; ACSP meeting in Denver)
October 19	Victoria Beard: Challenges to Reliable and Affordable Water in Cities in the Global South
October 26	Linda Shi: Ecological Imaginaries of Regional Adaptation
November 2	Shoshana Goldstein: Planning the Millennium City: The Politics of Place-Making in Gurgaon’s Urban Villages
November 9	Ingrid Gould-Ellen: Do Housing Vouchers Improve Academic Performance? Evidence from New York City
November 23	(No class; Thanksgiving)
November 28	Naohiro Kitano: Estimating China’s Foreign Aid: New Data. Note: Tuesday lecture