

INTENT TO MINOR IN FINE ARTS
Department of Art
College of Architecture, Art, and Planning

The art minor is an opportunity for students who are not enrolled in the Department of Art and who have a serious interest and/or background in studio art to continue their commitment to art at the college level.

The curriculum for the minor in fine arts totals a minimum of 24 credit hours. All coursework must be completed at Cornell University, and a grade of C or better is required. In addition, any coursework used to fulfill the minor cannot also be used to fulfill specific requirements of the student's major.

The specific course requirements for the minor in fine arts are:

- Three art studio courses at the 2000-level (12 credits)
- Two art studio courses at the 3000-level (8 credits)
- One additional art studio at the 2000- or 3000-level or VISST 2000 (4 credits)

Application Process:

Interested students must complete an Intent to Minor form in order to receive priority in the studio enrollment process. Completed forms should be submitted to AAP Office of Admissions and Academic Services, 235 Sibley Dome. Upon successful completion of all minor requirements, students must submit an Application to Graduate with a Minor in Fine Arts to the Department of Art, 224 Tjaden Hall, at least one month prior to graduation. The Department of Art will verify completion of the minor and the minor will be recorded on the official transcript at the time of degree completion.

Questions regarding the minor can be directed to the AAP Office of Admissions and Academic Services.
