

Julian B. Hartman

t: 217-417-0715 | e: jbhartman@arizona.edu | w: www.jbhartman.com

EDUCATION

- 2023 PhD in Geography (May 2023)
Graduate Certificate in Professional Geographic Information Systems Technology
School of Geography, Development and Environment
University of Arizona
- Dissertation: Making the Innovative City: Capital and Community in the Boston Region
- Committee: Dr. Mark Kear (chair), Dr. Jeffrey Banister, Dr. Marcia Klotz, Dr. Gary Rhoades
- 2017 MBA, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
- 2012 BS in Mathematics, University of Chicago

EMPLOYMENT

- 2023 Postdoctoral Fellow, Active Learning Initiative
Department of City and Regional Planning, Cornell University, Ithaca, NY, USA

PUBLICATIONS

Refereed Journal Articles

- 2023 Hartman J.B. and M Kear. "Governing by Entrepreneurship: Entrepreneurial Ecosystems and Socio-Spatial Difference." Competition & Change.

Articles Submitted or in Preparation

- 2023 Hartman J.B. (in revision). "Managerial Urban Entrepreneurialism in Boston and Cambridge: Section 112 Credits, Hospitals, Universities and Urban Renewal." The Journal of Urban History.
- 2023 Hartman J.B. (in preparation). "Minority Capital in the Seaport: Racial Capitalism and Innovation Districts in Boston." For submission to the Antipode.

Book Chapters and Reports

- 2021 Hartman J.B. and M Kear. "Critical Financial Geography." in Borch, C. and Wosnitzer, R. (eds.) Routledge Handbook to Critical Finance Studies (pp. 317-342). Abingdon: Routledge.

- 2019 Kear M, Handschuh, T, Launius S, Hartman J, Christopherson G. (2019) “The ‘Manufactured Housing Gap’ in Tucson and Pima County.” Economic and Business Research Center, Eller College, University of Arizona.
- 2015 Hartman, J., Carson, A., Otnes, C., & Maclaran, P. (2015). Contemporizing Kensington: Popular culture and the "enchanted palace" exhibit. In Encounters with Popular Pasts: Cultural Heritage and Popular Culture (pp. 165-183). Springer International Publishing. https://doi.org/10.1007/978-3-319-13183-2_10.

Book Reviews

- 2023 Hartman J.B. (2023). “Performing Community and Claiming Power in a Split Field: A review of Constructing Community” [Book Review]. City.
- 2020 Hartman, J.B. (2020). New Urban Spaces [Book Review]. The AAG Review of Books.

CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION

Research Presentations

- 2023 “Entrepreneurial Managerialism and Urban Renewal: The Case of Boston and Cambridge.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, Denver, CO, March 24.
- 2022 “The Old Roots of the New Economy: Innovation Districts and Section 112 Credits in Boston.” Global Conference on Economic Geography, Dublin, Ireland, June 7-10.
- 2022 “Universities and Medical Institutions as Urban Entrepreneurs in the Boston Region.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, New York, NY, February 25-March 1 (virtual).
- 2021 “Developing Diversity in Boston: From Users to Investors.” 2021 Race, Ethnicity, and Place Conference/Mid-Atlantic Division of the American Association of Geographers: Justice and the City in an Age of Social Division, Baltimore, MD, October 11-14 (virtual).
- 2021 “Economic Ecosystems and Uneven Development in Boston.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, Seattle, WA, April 7-11 (virtual).
- 2019 “Education and Entrepreneurial Ecosystems.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, Washington DC, April 3-7.
- 2018 “Rent, Information, and Property or, the Digital and the Urban.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, New Orleans, LA, April 10-14.

Conference Sessions

- 2022 Co-organizer (with Liu, Y). “Going Global 1 & 2: Entrepreneurship and its Governance Across Sites and Scales.” Association of American Geographers Annual General Meeting, New York, NY, February 25-March 1 (virtual).

GRANTS AND AWARDS

- 2023 “Community Conflict in an Innovative City: Institutions and Neoliberal Urban Development in the Boston Region.” History & Political Economy 2023 Summer Research Grant.
- 2023 “Section 112 Credits and Community Conflict in Boston’s Fenway Project.” New England Regional Fellowship Consortium Research Fellowship.
- 2022-2023 “Section 112 Credits and Urban Renewal in Boston.” Leventhal Map & Education Center Small Grant for Early Career Digital Publications.
- 2022 University of Arizona College of Social & Behavioral Sciences Summer Dissertation Fellowship.
- 2022 Environment and Planning A. Global Economic Geography Conference travel grant.
- 2021 University of Arizona School of Geography, Development and Environment. Summer Research Grant Award.
- 2020 University of Arizona School of Geography, Development, and Environment. Student-faculty collaboration grant.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- 2022 Spring: Graduate Assistant for GEOG 150B1: Geography and Global Issues
- 2021 Fall: Graduate Assistant, GEOG 305: Economic Geography
Spring: Instructor of Record, GEOG 305: Economic Geography (online)
- 2020 Fall: Instructor of Record, GEOG 373: Political Geography (online)
Spring: Instructor of Record, GEOG 305: Economic Geography (online)
- 2019 Fall: Instructor of Record, GE 103: World Geography
Fisher College, Boston
Spring: Instructor of Record, GEOG 305: Economic Geography
- 2018 Fall: Instructor of Record, GEOG 270: International Development
Spring: Graduate Assistant, GEOG 150C: Environment and Society
- 2017 Fall: Graduate Assistant, GEOG 150C: Environment and Society
Spring: Grader, Introduction to Marketing (online)
University of Illinois

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

- 2018 Research Assistant to Dr. Mark Kear, University of Arizona School of Geography and Development. June-July.
- 2013-2014 Research Assistant to Dr. Cornelia Otnes, Professor of Business Administration, University of Illinois College of Business.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

2018-2019: Executive Committee Chair of Southern Arizona Geographers Association (SAGA).

LANGUAGES

English: native speaker

Spanish: professional fluency

Mandarin Chinese: conversational

SKILLS

Professional GIST graduate certificate, University of Arizona

Proficient in Microsoft Office (Excel, PowerPoint, Word)

Competent in Adobe Suite (Photoshop, InDesign, Illustrator)